

GREECE VIA THE CORINTH CANAL & TURKEY: THE MARVELS OF ANCIENT RIVALS

ATHENS TO ATHENS | 10 or 11 days

EVERLASTING AND UNFORGETTABLE MEMORIES AWAIT

you on Bosphorus sunset floats and evening dining among the ruins of one of the ancient world's greatest trading ports. This Eastern Mediterranean cruise along the scenic coastlines of Greece and Turkey, with an overnight in Istanbul, circumnavigates the Peloponnese Peninsula via the narrow Corinth Canal, a route accessible only to small vessels.

POPULAR HIGHLIGHTS

- Find the legendary cave of Philocetes on Lemnos
- Near Katakolon visit the original site of the Olympic Games, and a UNESCO site
- Explore the Turkish architecture of Chania including the Arabian Lighthouse and the Kioutsouk Hassan Mosque
- Overnight in Istanbul with plenty of time to explore the Grand Bazaar, Topkapi Palace, and the Blue Mosque
- Step out on deck as you transit the narrow Corinth Canal, so close you can almost touch the rock walls
- Relax and enjoy the scenery cruising in the history-rich waters of The Dardanelles

WHY GO

Convenient round trip departure from Athens to some of the most important sites of Delphi and Olympia in Greece before transiting through the small ship exclusive, Corinth Canal with an overnight in Istanbul and multiple late nights in Intriguing Turkish ports.

ITINERARY

Day 1	Piraeus (Athens), Greece
Day 2	Transit Corinth Canal and Itea (Delphi), Greece
Day 3	Katakolon, Greece
Day 4	Chania, Greece
Day 5	Santorini, Greece
Day 6	Kusadasi, Greece
Day 7	Bodrum, Turkey
Day 8	Scenic Cruising The Dardanelles
Day 9	Istanbul (overnight), Turkey
Day 10	Istanbul, Turkey
Day 11	Myrina, Lemnos, Greece
Day 12	Piraeus (Athens), Greece

DEPARTURE DATES

Star Legend: May 11; Oct 15*, 2021

*Itinerary visits different ports, see WindstarCruises.com for details

Wild Blue Travel

Mary Burney

www.wildbluetravel.net

mary@wildbluetravel.net

WINDSTAR
CRUISES
180° FROM ORDINARY®